Mr. Grein and Mr. Maines explains that we are in the 10% range (up from 9%). Mr. Grein has given the district a program review tool/calculator that helps to show you where the lowest areas are and where improvements need to be made most.

7. Dress Code Policy Revision – Second Reading

Holmes High School

SBDM Council Policy

Dress Code Policy
HHS Best Practice Policy

In order to maintain an environment that provides for the care, welfare, safety, and security of all members of the school community, and to reduce distractions in the classroom, students will be required to follow certain guidelines for clothing. Certain items will be prohibited because of safety concerns or because they distract from the educational process. The administration reserves the right to determine whether or not a garment is appropriate for school.

Shirts/Dresses

- Must cover at least three inches from the neck to the shoulders.
- The stomach, back, and cleavage must be appropriately covered. Shirts and upper body garments must come to the waist.

- Shirts/blouses that are considered provocative or a distraction are also in violation of the dress code expectations.
- Must be free of logos that include profanity, crudity, sexual references, gang symbols, or references to drugs or alcohol

Pants/Shorts/Skirts

- Must be worn at the waist and must cover anything worn underneath.
- Must be free of accessories, such as chains, that have the potential to cause bodily harm.
- Skirts and shorts must come to the top of the knee.
- Hooded sweatshirts are permitted, but the hood must be down at all times.

Prohibited Items

- Hats, Tams, doo-rags, beanies/winter sock hats or other full head coverings are not to be worn in the building. If a student is found to be in violation, the head covering may be confiscated and returned to the student at the end of the week.
- Face/Body painting that is, considered by administration, a distraction to the educational process. Exceptions to this may be made by administration to support a spirit day or school sanctioned event.

Administration has final judgment on whether an item or clothing is appropriate or inappropriate for the school setting.
